

The No-Call law is not fair to small business owners. My dad is a funeral director who works hard for a living and his business is severely hampered by the no good law. Local business people should be allowed to call local people, it's that simple! Do away with the law so my dad can continue to work instead of being on welfare and the state paying our way. It is un-American what you are doing to my dad!